DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Subject to the articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the company.

5. Matters requiring members' approval

- 5.1 Without prejudice to the rights of members under the Companies Acts, the following matters require the consent in writing of the Requisite Majority of the Responding Members:
- 5.1.1 any change by the company to any of the Contract Terms;
 - 5.1.2 any change to any of the Standards (being a change from one Standard to another, and not including the updating of an applicable Standard) and/or any change to any of the response and turnaround times for Transfers as set out in the SLA;
 - 5.1.3 any increase by the company in any 12 month period in the joining fee, the annual membership fee or any other fee payable pursuant to the By-laws which in each case is more than the Indexed Increase for such 12 month period;

 - 5.1.5 any other proposed change in relation to the By-laws, SLA, Competition Policy and/or Whistle-Blowing Policy which the directors in their absolute discretion consider should require such consent.

- 5.2 Subject to article 5.3, in relation to any request for consent under article 5.1 "Requisite Majority" means:
- 5.2.1 that a majority of the classes of membership of the company formally approve the proposal in question (each such class of membership being a "Consenting Class") as follows:
- (a) at least 75% (by number) of the Responding Members in each of the Consenting Classes formally approve the proposal in question; and
 - (b) at least 10% (by number) of the members in each of the Consenting Classes responded to such request by formally approving or formally rejecting the proposal in question.
- 5.3 In respect of any change referred to in article 5.1 which, in accordance with article 5.4, needs to be submitted for approval (or rejection) to one or more, but not all, of the classes of membership of the company (each class of membership of the company to which such change needs to be so submitted being an "Eligible Class"), "Requisite Majority" means:
- 5.3.1 at least 75% (by number) of the Responding Members in each of the Eligible Classes formally approve the proposal in question; and
- 5.3.2 at least 10% (by number) of the members in each of the Eligible Classes responded to such request by formally approving or formally rejecting the proposal in question.
- 5.4 Where any change referred to in article 5.1 affects one or more, but not all, of the classes of membership of the company, such change does not need to be submitted for approval (or rejection) to any class of membership of the company which is not affected by such change. Whether any class of membership of the company is affected by any change referred to in article 5.1 will be determined by the directors on an objective basis at the time such change is put to the members for implementation. Unless otherwise determined by the directors pursuant to this article 5.4, any change referred to in article 5.1 must be submitted for approval (or rejection) to all the classes of membership of the company.
- 5.5 The members may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.
- 5.6 No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution.
6. Directors may delegate
- 6.1 Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles:
- 6.1.1 to such person or committee,
 - 6.1.2 by such means (including by power of attorney),
 - 6.1.3 to such an extent,
 - 6.1.4 in relation to such matters or territories, and
 - 6.1.5 on such terms and conditions, as they think fit.

6.2 If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.

6.3 The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

7. Committees

7.1 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors.

7.2 The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them.

8. Advisory Councils

8.1 Without prejudice to article 7, the directors may authorise the setting up of a number of Advisory Councils to advise on such issues as the directors may from time to time and at their sole discretion decide.

8.2 Each Advisory Council shall comprise:

8.2.1 a Chairman nominated by the directors; and

8.2.2 other persons, whether or not members of the company, selected by the Advisory Council Chairman.

8.3 All appointments under this article 8 shall be revocable at any time.

8.4 The deliberations of the Advisory Councils shall be reported regularly to the directors and any decision taken or recommendation made by an Advisory Council shall be reported forthwith to the directors and for that purpose the Advisory Council shall appoint a secretary.

8.5 The directors may make such rules and impose such terms and conditions and give such mandates to the Advisory Councils as they may from time to time think fit.

8.6 The meetings and proceedings of the Advisory Councils shall be governed by the provisions of the articles, making the necessary changes, provided that it shall be permissible for persons appointed to an Advisory Council to nominate an alternate to attend the deliberations of the Advisory Council in question in their place. If the appointment of a person to an Advisory Council is revoked or otherwise ceases, the appointment of any such alternate shall likewise be revoked or otherwise cease.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

9. Directors to take decisions collectively

9.1 Subject to article 9.2, the general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision or a decision taken in accordance with article 10.

9.2 Where the Special Directors together vote against a particular question and are the only directors to do so, then no decision on the matter in question shall be taken by the directors, unless the issue has been referred to a general meeting for consideration by the members. Any resolution proposed to any such general meeting shall be a special resolution.

9.3 If:

9.3.1 the company only has one director, and

9.3.2 no provision of the articles requires it to have more than one director, the general rule in article 9.1 does not apply, and the director may take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of the articles relating to directors' decision-making.

10. Unanimous decisions

10.1 A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter.

10.2 Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each eligible director or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.

10.3 References in this article to eligible directors are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors' meeting.

10.4 A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

11. Calling a directors' meeting

11.1 Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice.

11.2 Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate:

11.2.1 its proposed date and time;

11.2.2 where it is to take place; and

11.2.3 if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.

11.3 Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director, but need not be in writing.

11.4 Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the company not more than 7 days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

12. Participation in directors' meetings

12.1 Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when:

- 12.1.1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles, and
- 12.1.2 they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.
- 12.2 In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.
- 12.3 If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.
- 13. Quorum for directors' meetings
- 13.1 At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.
- 13.2 The quorum for directors' meetings shall be at least one director appointed by the members of each of the classes of membership eligible to appoint directors under article 19.2. If, in the case of any particular class of membership, no director has been appointed under article 19.2, 19.5 or 19.6, as the case may be, that class of membership shall be disregarded for the purposes of calculating the quorum.
- 13.3 If within half an hour of the time appointed for a meeting a quorum is not present the meeting shall be reconvened seven days later thereafter at the same time and place. The directors present at such reconvened meeting shall constitute a quorum. Notice of a meeting adjourned for absence of a quorum shall be given to all directors.
- 13.4 If the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision:
 - 13.4.1 to appoint further directors, or
 - 13.4.2 to call a general meeting so as to enable the members to appoint further directors.
- 14. Chairing of directors' meetings
- 14.1 The directors shall appoint one of the directors to chair their meetings.
- 14.2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman.
- 14.3 The directors may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time.
- 14.4 If the chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it.
- 15. No casting vote
- 15.1 If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting shall not have a casting vote.
- 16. Conflicts of interest
- 16.1 If a proposed decision of the directors is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company in which a director is interested, that director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

16.2 But if article 16.3 applies, a director who is interested in an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company is to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum and voting purposes.

16.3 This article 16.3 applies when:

16.3.1 the company by ordinary resolution disapplies the provision of the articles which would otherwise prevent a director from being counted as participating in the decision-making process;

16.3.2 the director's interest cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest; or 16.3.3 the director's conflict of interest arises from a permitted cause.

16.4 For the purposes of this article 16, the following are permitted causes:

16.4.1 a guarantee given, or to be given, by or to a director in respect of an obligation incurred by or on behalf of the company or any of its subsidiaries;

16.4.2 subscription, or an agreement to subscribe, for securities of the company or any of its subsidiaries, or to underwrite, sub-underwrite, or guarantee subscription for any such securities;

16.4.3 arrangements pursuant to which benefits are made available to employees and directors or former employees and directors of the company or any of its subsidiaries which do not provide special benefits for directors or former directors; and

16.4.4 the setting or variation of the joining fee, the annual membership fee or any other fee payable by the members pursuant to the By-laws.

16.5 For the purposes of this article 16, references to proposed decisions and decision-making processes include any directors' meeting or part of a directors' meeting.

16.6 Subject to article 16.7, if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive.

16.7 If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.

17. Records of decisions to be kept

17.1 The directors must ensure that the company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors.

18. Directors' discretion to make further rules

- 18.1 Subject to the Membership Agreement, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors.

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

19. Methods of appointing directors

- 19.1 The directors at the date of adoption of the articles are:

19.1.1 Carol Knight, and

19.1.2 Tony Vine-Lott

19.2.6 any other class of membership which the directors may hereafter specify pursuant to article 23.2 as being entitled to appoint directors, as a class

- (a) each director must be employed or engaged by, or a director of, a member of the class by which he is appointed; and
- (b) in the case of the Special Member, it shall cease to be entitled to appoint directors if any services agreement between the company and the Special Member is terminated.

- 19.3 Subject to article 19.5 each director so appointed shall hold office for a term of two years and may be reappointed for up to two further terms of office.

- 19.4 The process referred to in article 19.2 (for the appointment of directors by the various classes of member) shall, amongst other things, provide (to the extent that such appointments have not already been made) for such appointments to take place as soon as practicable after the company has admitted to membership at least 10 Service Provider Members and/or Multi-Role Members and at least 20 Asset Manager Members, and in any event by 30 June 2013.

- 19.5 At the first annual general meeting of the company held after the date of adoption of the articles and at each annual general meeting thereafter, one of the directors appointed by each class of member under article 19.2 shall retire by rotation and, if eligible and willing to act, may be re-appointed by the relevant class of member. Failing agreement as to which directors shall retire by rotation at the first such annual general meeting, the directors to retire shall be determined by lot. At each subsequent annual general meeting, the directors to retire by rotation shall be those who have been longest in office since their last appointment or reappointment, but as between persons who became or were last reappointed directors on the same day, those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree amongst themselves) be determined by lot. If any director who retires by rotation is not re-appointed, he shall retain office until someone is appointed in his place or, if no-one is appointed in his place, until the end of the meeting.

- 19.6 The directors may appoint an individual who is willing to act to be a director to fill a vacancy, who shall be designated as a director appointed by the relevant class of membership. A director so appointed shall hold office only until the next following annual general meeting and shall not be taken into account in determining the directors who are to retire by rotation at that meeting pursuant to article 19.5.

20. Termination of director's appointment

- 20.1 A person ceases to be a director as soon as:

20.1.1 that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006 or is prohibited from being a director by law;

20.1.2 a bankruptcy order is made against that person;

20.1.3 a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;

20.1.4 a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months;

20.1.5 by reason of that person's mental health, a court makes an order which wholly or partly prevents that person from personally exercising any powers or rights which that person would otherwise have;

20.1.6 notification is received by the company from the director that the director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms;

20.1.7 in the case of a director appointed by any class of membership entitled to appoint directors who was employed or engaged by, or a director of, a member of the relevant appointing class:

(a) he is no longer employed or engaged by, or a director of, such member; or

(b) the member by whom he is employed or engaged, or of which he is a director, ceases to be a member provided that:

(i) a person will not cease to be a director if the member by whom he is employed or engaged, or of which he is a director, is suspended from the Contract Club, and

(ii) if the director is employed or engaged by, or a director of, a Multi-Role Member which ceases to be a Multi-Role Member, such director will cease to be a director whether or not the relevant Multi-Role Member continues to be a member of some other class;

20.1.8 in the case of the Special Directors, the Special Member ceases to be entitled to appoint directors under article 19.2; or 20.1.9 in the case of any director who is absent without permission of the directors from two successive meetings of the directors, the directors resolve that his office be vacated.

21. Directors' remuneration

21.1 Directors may undertake any services for the company that the directors decide.

21.2 Directors are entitled to such remuneration as the directors determine:

21.2.1 for their services to the company as directors, and 21.2.2 for any other service which they undertake for the company.

21.3 Subject to the articles, a director's remuneration may:

21.3.1 take any form, and

21.3.2 include any arrangements in connection with the payment of a pension, allowance or gratuity, or any death, sickness or disability benefits, to or in respect of that director.

21.4 Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors' remuneration accrues from day to day.

- 25.2.2 if it fails to pay any fees due to the company by the due date;
- 25.2.3 (subject to article 25.3) if the member is no longer a participant in the Contract Club;

25.2.4 on the expiration of one month after notice in writing requiring such member to resign shall have been given by the company, pursuant to a resolution passed by a majority of not less than three-fourths of the directors as, being entitled so to do, vote at a meeting of the directors specially convened for the purpose of considering such resolution and at which such member shall have been given an opportunity of attending and being heard, unless, in the circumstances set out in articles 25.2.1 to 25.2.3 inclusive, the directors shall determine that the membership of that member shall either be reinstated or shall be deemed not to have ceased.

25.3 If a Multi-Role Member ceases to be a participant in the Contract Club in respect of all but one of its capacities as a Multi-Role Member or ceases to satisfy the eligibility criteria for all but one of its capacities as a Multi-Role Member (the capacity in respect of which such Multi-Role Member continues to participate and to satisfy the eligibility criteria being the "continuing capacity"), such member will cease to be a Multi-Role Member and will automatically become a member of the same category as the continuing capacity.

25.4 Membership is personal and accordingly is not transferable.

25.5 A person's membership terminates when that person dies or ceases to exist.

26. Nominated person

26.1 Every member (other than a member who is an individual) shall by notice in writing to the company nominate an individual to be the nominated representative of the member to act as the corporate representative of the member in the manner provided in section 323 of the Companies Act 2006. A member shall be entitled to withdraw the nomination of its nominated person at any time by notice in writing to the company and to nominate some other individual in his place.

ORGANISATION OF GENERAL MEETINGS

27. Attendance and speaking at general meetings

27.1 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.

27.2 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when:

27.2.1 that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting, and

27.2.2 that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting.

27.3 The directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it.

27.4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other.

27.5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

28. Quorum for general meetings

28.1 No business other than the appointment of the chairman of the meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting (or a separate general meeting of a class of members) if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum.

28.2 A quorum for a general meeting shall comprise a member, present in person, from each class of membership for the time being entitled to vote, together representing a majority of the number of classes of membership for the time being which are entitled to vote. If, in the case of any particular class of membership, there is not presently a member of the company, that class of membership shall be disregarded for the purposes of calculating the quorum. A quorum for a separate general meeting of a class of members shall be two members, present in person, for the time being entitled to vote. For the purposes of the articles, a member being a company present by its representative shall be deemed to be present in person.

28.3 If within half an hour of the time appointed for a meeting a quorum is not present the meeting shall be reconvened seven days later thereafter at the same time and place. The members present at such reconvened meeting shall constitute a quorum. Notice of a meeting adjourned for absence of a quorum shall be given to all members.

29. Chairing general meetings

29.1 If the directors have appointed a chairman, the chairman shall chair general meetings if present and willing to do so.

29.2 If the directors have not appointed a chairman or if the chairman is unwilling to chair the meeting or is not present within ten minutes of the time at which a meeting was due to start:

29.2.1 the directors present, or

29.2.2 (if no directors are present), the meeting,

must appoint a director or member to chair the meeting, and the appointment of the chairman of the meeting must be the first business of the meeting.

29.3 The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this article 29 is referred to as “the chairman of the meeting”.

30. Attendance and speaking by directors and non-members

30.1 Directors may attend and speak at general meetings, whether or not they are members.

30.2 The chairman of the meeting may permit other persons who are not members of the company to attend and speak at a general meeting.

31. Adjournment

31.1 If the persons attending a general meeting within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the chairman of the meeting must adjourn it.

- 31.2 The chairman of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if:
- 31.2.1 the meeting consents to an adjournment, or
 - 31.2.2 it appears to the chairman of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.
- 31.3 The chairman of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.
- 31.4 When adjourning a general meeting, the chairman of the meeting must:
- 31.4.1 either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or (unless it is adjourned pursuant to article 28.3) state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the directors, and
 - 31.4.2 (unless it is adjourned pursuant to article 28.3) have regard to any directions as to the time and place of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting.
- 31.5 If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than 14 days after it was adjourned, the company must give at least 7 clear days' notice of it (that is, excluding the day of the adjourned meeting and the day on which the notice is given):
- 31.5.1 to the same persons to whom notice of the company's general meetings is required to be given, and
 - 31.5.2 containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.
- 31.6 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

32. Voting: general
- 32.1 A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the articles.
- 32.2 Subject as provided in article 32.3, on a show of hands or on a poll every member who is present in person or by proxy shall have one vote, provided always that a member whose participation in the Contract Club has been suspended pursuant to the By-laws (including any Multi-Role Member whose participation has been suspended in some but not all capacities) shall not be entitled to vote (or to approve or reject any proposal in accordance with article 5, and shall be disregarded for the purposes of calculating the percentages referred to in articles 5.2 and 5.3) during the period of any such suspension.
- 32.3 Where two or more members of a particular class of membership which is entitled to vote are members of the same Group, they shall together be entitled to one vote only and only one of such members shall be entitled to exercise such vote. Failing agreement among the relevant members as to which of them shall exercise such vote, the first of such members to have been admitted to membership as shown in the company's register of members shall alone be entitled to exercise such vote.

33. Errors and disputes

- 33.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.
- 33.2 Any such objection must be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision is final.

34. Poll votes

- 34.1 A poll on a resolution may be demanded:
 - 34.1.1 in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote, or
 - 34.1.2 at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.
- 34.2 A poll may be demanded by:
 - 34.2.1 the chairman of the meeting;
 - 34.2.2 the directors;
 - 34.2.3 two or more persons having the right to vote on the resolution; or
 - 34.2.4 a person or persons representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote on the resolution.
- 34.3 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if:
 - 34.3.1 the poll has not yet been taken, and
 - 34.3.2 the chairman of the meeting consents to the withdrawal.
- 34.4 Polls must be taken immediately and in such manner as the chairman of the meeting directs.

35. Content of proxy notices

- 35.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a "proxy notice") which:
 - 35.1.1 states the name and address of the member appointing the proxy;
 - 35.1.2 identifies the person appointed to be that member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
 - 35.1.3 is signed by or on behalf of the member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine; and
 - 35.1.4 is delivered to the company in accordance with the articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.

- 35.2 The company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.
- 35.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.
- 35.4 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:
- 35.4.1 allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and
 - 35.4.2 appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.
36. Delivery of proxy notices
- 36.1 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the company by or on behalf of that person.
- 36.2 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.
- 36.3 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
- 36.4 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.
37. Amendments to resolutions
- 37.1 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if:
- 37.1.1 notice of the proposed amendment is given to the company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chairman of the meeting may determine), and
 - 37.1.2 the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chairman of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.
- 37.2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if:
- 37.2.1 the chairman of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and
 - 37.2.2 the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.
- 37.3 If the chairman of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chairman's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.
